Pack Your Bags for the Philippine Islands

Project Organizer

Directions

Your grandfather joined the 200th Coast Artillery in 1940. The last time he saw his family was when he was shipped overseas in September 1941. He died at Camp O’Donnell after completing the infamous Death March.

Your father has asked you to help plan a family trip to the Philippines. He wants to specifically visit the Camp O’Donnell Memorial Monument. Your job is to help him organize all the many tasks required for a comfortable, overseas family vacation.

With your group, brainstorm the information you will need, where it might be found, and assign tasks to each person in the group to collect this information. Each group will present their virtual trip to the Philippines using visual aids of their choice.

1. How will you present the information to your group gathers? Describe the presentation method your group decides on.

2. What information will you need to complete the task? Where will you find the information? Include books, people, and electronic sources.

3. Will you use the Web site list or will a member of your group evaluate Which Web sites will you use? Which evaluation form will you use?

4. Who is responsible for finding the information?

5. How will each member of the group record their information so it is useful to the entire group?

6. How will the information be cited?
