Suggested Literature List

Fiction

Non Fiction

Leopold, Aldo. (1949). A Sand County almanac. Los Angeles: Island Press, 1999. Aldo Leopold was a hunter, farmer, and government biologist who argued eloquently for a land ethic, calling for responsible use of soil, water, plants, and animals. His classic A Sand County almanac is one of the most influential conservation books of all time.
